

MAXWELL MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

GLOBAL CULTURE & CERAMICS SIN-YING HO THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2016 4:00 p.m FREE AND OPEN TO

Artist Sin-Ying Ho was born in Hong Kong, emigrated to Canada, and currently resides in New York City. Her piece "Temptation," is in the current exhibit at the Maxwell and is part of the Eden series. "Eden is the search for paradise, a mythical place of bliss, delight and contentment. The 'Eden' series was inspired during the onset of the economic crisis in 2008; it was a time when we were all searching for answers why the economic collapse happened.

Supported by:

Info: 277-1400 or <https://maxwellmuseum.unm.edu>
Chan family, Chinese American Citizens Alliance Eason
Eige, Ed Jeung, PNM Resources, and the Tang family

Sin-ying Ho, Temptation—Life of Goods No. 2, from the Eden Series 2010.
Porcelain, cobalt pigment, underglaze, decal, glaze