8:30 AM to 10:00 AM Grace Lee Boggs

Grace Lee Boggs, was a Chinese American philosopher, writer, and activist in Detroit with a thick FBI file and a surprising vision of what an American revolution can be. Rooted for 75 years in the labor, civil rights and Black Power movements, she challenged a new generation to throw off old assumptions, think creatively and redefine revolution for our times.

10:15 AM to 11:45 AM - A Tale of Three Chinatowns

A TALE OF THREE CHINATOWNS examines Chinatowns in three American cities. The film looks at the forces altering each community and the challenges that go with them. These challenges include competition for space, residential displacement, increased living costs, non-community developers and overall, their survival. The film presents the present day pressing topic of urban development and gentrification through the eyes of those on the frontlines.
